ALBERT PLAYS GOLF

By Linda Owens

Albert's dad was going to play golf. It was a beautiful Saturday morning. Albert wanted to go, too. He asked his dad to take him. His dad told him to get dressed and get ready. Albert was so happy! He put on his clothes and got his golf clubs ready. Albert and his dad drove to the golf course in the truck. They got a golf cart when they got to the course. Albert put his clubs on the back of the cart and off they went. Albert hit the little white ball with the club. Up it went and he was proud. Albert liked to ride in the golf cart. It could go fast. Albert had a great day playing golf with his dad.
